

Wauwatosa Schools stand to face ongoing budget cuts and your property taxes are likely to go up. How can this be?

The 2006-07 budget was a reprieve for the Tosa school board and community after many difficult years. Since 1992, Tosa Schools have made many budget cuts and increased fees. Now, with the state budget unresolved, the chances of more budget cuts have increased and your taxes will have to go up because of the state laws governing how schools are funded.

Even if the state budget is passed by the September 28th deadline mandated by state law, the school funding system in Wisconsin is BROKEN. Come find out why and what you can do to fix it.
